

WITHDRAWAL NOTICE

NUT ALLERGY

Customer safety is of paramount importance to Marks & Spencer. We take all issues regarding the production of our food extremely seriously.

Routine checks by our supplier found a small amount of nuts in a nut free area in their food preparation facility, where some Marks & Spencer quiches and casseroles are made.

As soon as the incident was reported all production ceased and no food products left the premises. We believe this is an isolated incident. As an additional precautionary measure all products made at this site have been withdrawn from our stores.
