

Important Product recall

Seymours of Norfolk Ltd
Infused Olive Oil Products:

Rosemary
Thyme
Basil
Garlic
Lime
Lemon
Chilli

250ml glass bottles and oil from cask:

A technical fault in the production of these products has led to a situation where some of the above products may contain a small amount of water which could lead to the growth of potentially dangerous bacteria.

Any infused olive oil product with a best before date before and including March 2009 is being recalled. Other Seymours of Norfolk products are not affected.

The Best Before dates are printed on the label.

We are asking customers who have purchased any of the Seymour's of Norfolk infused olive oil products listed above with a best before date before and including March 2009 to return the product to the shop where it was purchased to receive a refund or a bottle of olive oil or vinegar.

This notice has been issued by Seymour's of Norfolk in the interests of customer safety. The recall is made as a precautionary measure. We apologise for any inconvenience this may cause.
