

National measures in England on the enforcement of gluten labelling

Statws: Wedi dod i ben

Dyddiad lansio: 25 Tachwedd 2016

Dyddiad cau: 22 Mai 2016

The aim is to ensure consumers who avoid gluten for medical reasons are not misled or confused about gluten claims; and to promote greater consistency around these claims.

About this consultation

Consultation target audience

Food manufactures, consumer organisations and food business operators involved in the placing on the market of 'gluten-free' foods including importers, distributors, wholesalers and retailers, plus enforcement authorities.

Subject of this consultation

A proposed regulation – Gluten in Food (Information for Consumers) (England) Regulations 2014, to allow the enforcement of the Commission Implementing Regulation No. 828/ 2014 which contains rules on providing information to consumers on the absence or reduced presence of gluten in foods.

Purpose of this consultation

To seek stakeholders' comments and views on the proposed regulations, which will introduce specific enforcement measures in England relating to the European Union rules on 'gluten-free' foods, and the associated Impact Assessment.
