

Nutricia recalls Cow & Gate and Aptamil Muesli 10+ months products because they contain pieces of apple stalks

Nutricia is recalling Cow & Gate and Aptamil Muesli products because some packs have been found to contain pieces of apple stalks. The presence of the apple stalks presents a choking hazard to babies making these products unsafe to eat. This is an update to the recall of the same products on 15/01/2021 as two of the products were rereleased in error.

Our advice to consumers

If you have bought the above products do not feed them to your baby. Instead, return them to the store from where they were bought, with or without a receipt, for a full refund. Alternatively contact the Cow & Gate careline number on 0800 977 8880 or Aptamil careline number on 0800 996 1000 or <https://www.cgbabyclub.co.uk/our-careline> or <https://www.aptaclub.co.uk/contact-aptaclub>.

About product recalls and withdrawals

If there is a problem with a food product that means it should not be sold, then it might be 'withdrawn' (taken off the shelves) or 'recalled' (when customers are asked to return the product). The FSA issues Product Withdrawal Information Notices and Product Recall Information Notices to let consumers and local authorities know about problems associated with food. In some cases, a 'Food Alert for Action' is issued. This provides local authorities with details of specific action to be taken on behalf of consumers.
