

Consultation on Market Authorisation of 10 Regulated Food and Feed Products December 2024

Status: Open

Date launched: 18 December 2024

Closing date: 19 February 2025

This consultation will be of most interest to

All England, Wales, and Northern Ireland food and feed businesses, local and port health authorities, district councils, and other stakeholders with an interest in food and feed safety. Food Standards Scotland will also be publishing this consultation in January 2025 for stakeholders in Scotland.

Consultation subject

This consultation seeks stakeholders' views, comments, and feedback in relation to the regulated product applications considered in this document, which have been submitted for:

- a? new specification of an existing permitted food additive
- a new use for an existing permitted feed additive
- a new authorisation for one food flavouring?
- removal of 8 food flavourings (one application covering eight food flavourings)
- a new authorisation for one Food Contact Material (FCM)
- 3 new authorisations for 3?Genetically Modified Organisms (GMOs) for food and feed uses
- a new authorisation of one novel food and an extension of use of an existing novel food

Purpose of the consultation

In consulting, the Food Standards Agency (FSA) is seeking views from stakeholders on the proposed authorisation and the terms on which it is proposed, any transitional periods or labelling requirements, and on any other legitimate factors (i.e. social, environmental, economic etc) as identified. Stakeholders are invited to use this opportunity to comment on these factors or highlight any additional factors that should be brought to the attention of ministers before a final decision is made.
