

Accessibility statement for 'Register a food business' service

This accessibility statement applies to the Register a food business service.

The Register a food business service is run by the Food Standards Agency. We want as many people as possible to be able to use this service. For example, that means you should be able to:

- zoom in up to 300% without the text spilling off the screen
- navigate most of the website using just a keyboard
- navigate most of the website using speech recognition software
- listen to most of the website using a screen reader (including the most recent versions of JAWS, NVDA and VoiceOver)

We've also made the website text as simple as possible to understand. AbilityNet has advice on making your device easier to use if you have a disability.

How accessible this website is

We know some parts of this website are not fully accessible. You can see a full list of any issues in the Non-accessible content section of this statement.

Enforcement procedure

The Equality and Human Rights Commission (EHRC) is responsible for enforcing the Public Sector Bodies (Websites and Mobile Applications) (No. 2) Accessibility Regulations 2018 (the 'accessibility regulations'). If you're not happy with how we respond to your complaint, contact the Equality Advisory and Support Service \(EASS\).

If you are in Northern Ireland and are not happy with how we respond to your complaint you can contact the Equalities Commission for Northern Ireland who are responsible for enforcing the Public Sector Bodies (Websites and Mobile Applications) (No. 2) Accessibility Regulations 2018 (the 'accessibility regulations') in Northern Ireland.

Technical information about this website's accessibility

The Food Standards Agency is committed to making its website accessible, in accordance with the Public Sector Bodies (Websites and Mobile Applications) (No. 2) Accessibility Regulations 2018.

Compliance status

This website is partially compliant with the Web Content Accessibility Guidelines version 2.1 AA standard, due to the non-compliances and exemptions listed below.

Non-accessible content

The content listed below is non-accessible for the following reasons.

Non-compliance with the accessibility regulations

The content that is not accessible is outlined below with details of planned dates for when issues will be fixed.

Links

- Some links do not clearly explain their purpose or specify when they open in a new window. This could be confusing for screen reader users. We are working to contextualise these links and make them clearer. (WCAG?2.1 2.4.4 Link Purpose (In Context))

Headings and page structure

- Some headings are not descriptive and do not provide a clear indication as to what the page is about. Users are encouraged to read the page contents for full details. (WCAG?2.1 1.3.1 Info and Relationships, 2.4.6 Headings and Labels)
- The table summary of user details are not hidden correctly when in high contrast mode. (WCAG 2.1 1.4.8 Visual presentation).

Form elements

- Some form fields are not grouped appropriately, require clearer field labels and group descriptions. Although, there are labels available they are not all clear enough to describe the content. This should not impact on a users ability to complete the form. (WCAG?2.1 1.3.1 Info and Relationships, 2.4.6 Headings and Labels)
- Some form fields require greater context to ensure users can identify the purpose of the edit field. (WCAG 2.1 2.4.6 Headings and labels)

Help text

- Some help text appears on pages that do not need that information, this could confuse users. Users are encouraged to ignore help text if it appears out of context. (WCAG?2.1

1.3.1 Info and Relationships, 3.3.2 Labels or Instructions)

Navigation

- Visual focus indicators do not meet the minimum required colour contrast ratio. We are working to amend this as quickly as possible. (WCAG 2.1 1.4.11 Non-text Contrast)
- Some fields have drop down options that cannot be accessed when using the service with reflow options. This might inhibit a users ability to fill out the form, please try on a different device if reflow causes an issue. (WCAG 2.1 1.4.10 Reflow)

Disproportionate burden

At this time, we have not made any disproportionate burden claims.

Content that's not within the scope of the accessibility regulations

At this time, we have not identified any content that is not within the scope of the accessibility regulations.

Preparation of this accessibility statement
